

Assistant Professional, Hobart Real Tennis Club

The Hobart Real Tennis Club is seeking a motivated individual for a full time Assistant Real Tennis Professional position. Good sporting performance and the ability to relate well to a wide range of people will be essential. Women are encouraged to apply.

The position is available immediately and the Assistant Professional will work with Head Professional Brett McFarlane to provide tennis and club services for our busy club. With an average court usage of 80-90 hours a week, we have an active and enthusiastic membership, and work hours will involve rostering across a 7-day week.

The Hobart Real Tennis Club, Australia's oldest, is located in the centre of Hobart near the famous Salamanca area. Hobart is a beautiful and affordable city for singles, couples and families and Tasmania attracts international attention as a great place to live. The Hobart Club maintains an active interest in hosting national and international tennis events, and will host the Australian Open in January 2018.

Interested applicants can contact Christine Stirling for further details via email president@hobarttennis.com.au or phone +61400696858, or contact Brett McFarlane on pro@hobarttennis.com.au

Further information can be found about the club on the website <https://hobarttennis.com.au/>

Applications must be sent to president@hobarttennis.com.au by 10th August 2017.
